SCIENCE & EDUCATION

- Published Studies – Have access to published studies to ensure that you and your patients are kept up-to-date with the latest scientific findings.
- Monthly Newsletter – The monthly newsletter included with this program covers cardiovascular disease (CVD) prevention and news, personal stories, heart healthy recipes and more.
- Monthly Scientific Update Webinars – In these live one-hour sessions facilitated by Bradley Bale, MD or Amy Doneen, DNP, we share the latest peer-reviewed data that makes our method dynamic and discuss specific patient cases.
- Lunch-and-Learn Speaker’s Deck – Being ahead of the printed science positions you as a national and regional expert. You’ll gain access to slide decks with key data from the latest studies that would otherwise take hours to compile, a valuable asset for your speaking engagement presentations.
